

Pro026

Infinity/Evolution Controls Training

Live demo of the industry's most advanced residential control system

Course Content

This two and one half hour program covers all the features and benefits of the new Carrier/Bryant residential control system. Participants will be able to observe how the controller is programmed and how it is installed. This controller is unique in the industry and will be an important piece of the product offering. It is a required program for any dealer who wishes to sell these products.

Who Should Attend

Sales people and installation/service technicians who will be working with Carrier's Infinity and Bryant's Evolution system products.

What You Will Learn

- Components of the Infinity/Evolution system
- New integration and communication features
- Network interface capability
- Installation procedures
- Mounting options
- Wiring options
- Programming procedures and options
- Advanced Setup options
- Humidification & dehumidification Setup and benefits
- Limit set points
- Accessory integration
- Zoning procedures and options
- Installation and service features and benefits

What You Will Get

- Product installation/service manual
- Lunch and refreshments will be served

Program Duration - 2.5 Hours